Headteacher comment

Dear parents,

I hope you had a lovely break over half term. The children have all come back keen and eager to learn this week.

The Year 3 children worked hard last half term on their Stone Age topic and this morning presented a wonderful assembly displaying everything they had learned. The speaking, singing and presentations were all excellent. Thanks to Mrs Jennings and Ms Burrow for their hard work and for all the parents and friends for coming to support.

This morning, we also had a visit from some members of the local WI. They worked with groups of Year 2 sewing beautiful, heart-shaped decorations linked to the theme of 'love of nature'. Thanks to those who came to work with the children.

Reminder next Thursday is World Book Day – children can come dressed up or in their PJ's ready for a story but please ensure they are wearing clothes that are suitable to go outside in. There is also a special lunch and different activities planned throughout the day.

Have a good weekend,

Mr Bowden
